

SYSTRA appoints David White as Director of Health, Safety, Security & Sustainability

With a wealth of experience in leading change and putting people first, David will lead on SYSTRA's commitments to colleagues and the environment

SYSTRA Ltd has appointed David White as Director of Health, Safety, Security & Sustainability to lead the business' commitment to keeping colleagues safe and well, and lowering the carbon impact of its UK & Ireland activities. He brings a wealth of experience delivering positive cultural change in this context in a number of sectors including construction, pharmaceutical, food manufacture and wastewater treatment.

Nick Salt, CEO of SYSTRA Ltd, said: "We're delighted that David has joined the senior leadership team at a time of significant growth in transportation and adjacent markets. Above all, the health, safety and security of our colleagues and the solutions we provide is our priority and this comes hand-in-hand with our sustainability mission."

David White added: "I'm proud to be joining the signature team at SYSTRA and look forward to supporting colleagues in the world-wide SYSTRA Group. I have no doubt in their absolute commitment to providing a safe and sustainable future for everyone. I believe every individual has a part to play and I am looking forward to working with my new colleagues across the business to bring our values, and responsibilities, to life."
